Built in 1822

Lion Hotel 1896

The Lion Hotel was built in 1822 in the heart of Dulverton, which is the headquarters of the Exmoor National Park. The Hotel offers customers a warm and friendly welcome where you can relax and unwind. You will find the service friendly and the hospitality second to none.

The Lion has a lounge bar providing a relaxing informal area to enjoy some local ales and ciders and a separate restaurant which can be used for functions of up to 40 guests.

Lunch and dinner can be served in the restaurant or the bar where we can offer a variety of home made dishes from locally sourced West Country produce. Our menu provides both traditional and contemporary dishes offering you a true taste of Exmoor.

All of our 14 bedrooms have en-suite, TV, Direct Dial Telephones and Hospitality Tray. Opt for our four-poster bed for that touch of extravagance.

Local attractions within striking distance are:

Cleeve Abbey, West Somerset Steam Railway, Dunster Castle, Combe Sydenham Country Park, Dartington Crystal, Sheppy's Cider Farm, Wimbleball Lake to name but a few.

Although the Lion is in the middle of peace and tranquillity it is only 18 miles from Junction 27 of the M5, the ideal location for a well deserved break.

Dulverton, the Gateway to Exmoor

Dulverton is the ideal base to explore unspoilt Exmoor and the surrounding countryside. Nestling in a natural bowl in the landscape, it is surrounded by deciduous woodland and small Devonshire fields.

Beautiful scenery, heather-clad moors and quiet leafy lanes plus Exmoor's free-roaming herds of Red Deer and Ponies. There are many activities which anyone can pursue: Fishing - game and coarse, Hunting, Riding, Shooting, Clay Shooting, Walking, Kayaking, Windsurfing at Wimbleball Lake, Exmoor Safaris, Squash and Golf can all be arranged locally.
